

Over 500 cities across America (and counting) are now No Kill cities - saving upwards of 99% of the animals entering their animal control departments and private and municipal shelters. New Mexico can also have this same level of animal welfare success. Every year, tens of thousands of lost and homeless pets and community cats are at-risk of entering New Mexico animal control and shelter systems and then not making it out alive but there are proven solutions to these challenges:

TOP 6 REASONS COMPANION ANIMALS ENTER SHELTER SYSTEMS:

Behavior

Financial Hardship

Divorce/Breakup

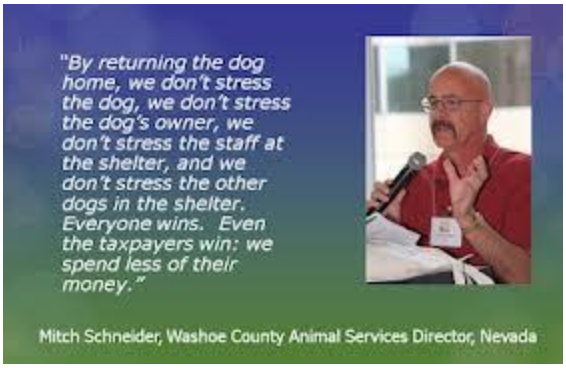
Lost Pets

Death in Family

Losing Home

PROVEN SOLUTIONS TO REDUCE SHELTER INTAKE:

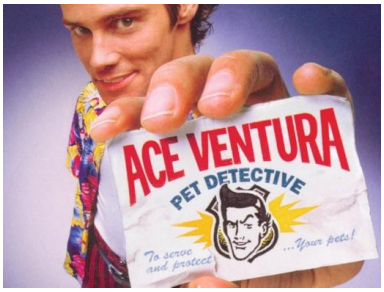
- Pet Guardian Support to help keep pets in their homes and out of shelters
- Positive Alternatives to Shelter Surrender for Pet Guardians who need temporary pet housing assistance to keep their pets or re-homing assistance for pets they can no longer keep in the home



- Return Lost Pets to Pet Guardians in the field rather than entering shelter intake system

- Trap-Neuter-Return for community cats rather than entering the shelter intake system
- Low-Cost or Free, High-Volume, High-Quality Spay and Neuter Services for Pet Guardians

PROVEN SOLUTIONS TO INCREASE SHELTER LIVE RELEASE RATES:



- Pro-Active Redemption/Reunion programs for reuniting lost pets entering the shelter system who are not homeless

- Medical and Behavioral prevention, care, rehabilitation and Foster programs and services for shelter pets

- Pets to the People - comprehensive, multi-location, off-site from shelter, pet adoption programs operating 5 – 7 days per week in partnership with local businesses to help shelter pets gain more public exposure where people gather, work and play.

Each of the aforementioned solutions has been proven to be equally important and must work in concert with each another to maximize the save rates of at-risk lost and homeless pets and community cats in New Mexico. New Mexico Pets Alive! (NMPA!) is working daily to fill the gaps in promoting and providing the resources, education and programs needed to eliminate the killing of companion animals in New Mexico but we cannot do it without your help.
